

The Athens Guitar Trio has proven a passion for their instrument that continues to delight and entertain audiences. Their extensive classical training and a forward-reaching mindset allow them to perform music from throughout the repertoire in energetic and engaging concerts.